PRICED CATALOGUES

A priced copy of this catalogue may be obtained for one dollar for each session of the sale plus the cost of the catalogue

None of the items in the present catalogue is subject to the Federal Excise Tax as set forth in paragraph 11 of the Conditions of Sale.

PRINTED IN THE U. S. A.

EC 21 1944

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries", wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Parke-Bernet Galleries, Inc.
2. The Galleries has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.
3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are to be for a single article even though more than one article is included under a numbered item in the catalogue. If, however, the articles under any one numbered item are designated as a "Lot" then bids are to be for the lot irrespective of the number of articles described in such item.
4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.
5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.
7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.
8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.
9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

CONDITIONS OF SALE—concluded

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered, or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.
11. Unless purchased for resale, the buyer will be required to pay the Federal Excise Tax equivalent to 10 per centum of the price for which sold on jewelry, clocks, silver, gold, furs, etc. However, articles of these categories sold for certain classes of consignors are exempt from this tax. Items in this catalogue subject to the Federal Excise Tax are designated (*).
12. Unless exempt from the payment thereof, the buyer will also be required to pay the New York City sales tax of 1 per centum of the price for which all articles are sold.
13. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as it may prescribe, but without charge for its services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by it. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot", in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "for the Lot". The Galleries reserves the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.
14. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.
15. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

275. FAMILLE ROSE 'ORIENTAL LOWESTOFT' PORCELAIN BOWL, SAID TO HAVE BEEN USED AT THE CHRISTENING OF GEORGE WASHINGTON XVIII Century
Resonant round bowl decorated in rose, mauve, coral red, sepia, green and gold with nosegays of flowers in cartouches, the interior with scattered blossoms and border of lambrequins with vignettes of birds and leafy branches, alternating with butterflies enclosed by garlands. Diameter 10 $\frac{5}{8}$  inches

Note: According to a document pasted underfoot, this bowl was used at the christening of General George Washington (b. 1732). It was given to Mrs. Beliza Oldham of 24 Lombard Street, London, in 1775 by an old lady as a debt of gratitude, and bequeathed on her death in 1812 to Wm. Chapman Oldham, Esq. (d. 1860) thence descending to Mrs. T. Swift Taylor (Eleanor C. Mackie) and finally into the possession of A. Healey Foster, Esq. of Cranes Park, Surbiton, Surrey, from whom it was purchased in 1907 by Mr. Morgan. It is probable from the nature of the decoration that the bowl, which seems well authenticated as coming from the Washington household, is actually of somewhat later date than 1732.

441. RÉGENCE ELABORATELY CHASED, JEWELLED AND ENAMELED GOLD CABINET-FORM NÉCESSAIRE WITH CLOCK

Johann Melchior Dinglinger, Dresden, circa 1725

4600
A quadrangular boudoir clock with gabled sides, enclosed by four free-standing Corinthian colonnettes with flaming urn finials and itself supporting a jeweled urn of flowers; this motive is repeated in the form of four urns with flowers, forming the finials of the larger free-standing colonnettes which enclose the nécessaire. This is in the form of a cabinet of two small and two long drawers above a deep compartment simulating four other long drawers and beautifully fitted with scent phials, manicure scissors, pearl-handled seal, ivory tablets, pocket mirror, etc. The drawer fronts, colonnettes and clock case are embellished with flowers and leafage in royal blue enamel, the finial bouquets jeweled with diamond chips, foiled rubies and Baroque pearls. The back of the nécessaire case is superbly chased with a festooned pipe organ surrounded by a garlanded musical trophy, between columns wreathed in foliage. Height 12½ inches

Note: Johann Melchior Dinglinger (1665-1731) was the greatest German goldsmith of his period, and his earliest work was executed in Augsburg. He visited Rome and was summoned to Dresden in 1702 by the Elector Augustus II of Saxony, who made him court jeweler and for whom he worked until his death in 1731, assisted by his brothers, Georg Friedrich (1666-1720) and Georg Christoph (1668-1721). Dr. Williamson affirms that the tradition attributing it to him appears to rest upon reliable authority (vide infra).

CHELSEA PORCELAIN SCENT BOTTLES OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

An important group of the famous Chelsea 'toys' executed in the period 1745-70. According to G. E. Bryant (op. cit., p. 9), they were designed and made by Frenchmen working in Chelsea, although as he later remarks, many of them were inspired by the work of Meissen. He adds "The more one sees of these charming bottles the more one is astonished at the marvellous modelling and the detail and taste displayed. These old Chelsea craftsmen never shirked their work. Detail scarcely visible to the eye has been fashioned with the most careful and painstaking accuracy." William King (op. cit., p. 56), says of them: "Some of the most exquisite workmanship of the factory is to be found in these tiny pieces." They have always been much prized by collectors, and this is the most extensive group to appear at public sale in America in a great many years.

486. LOUIS XV SÈVRES ROSE POMPADOUR AND GREEN PORCELAIN

POTPOURRI VASE VAISSEAU À MÂT

Circa 1760

Vase of boat-shaped contour pierced with a series of circular orifices around the rim and modeled at bow and stern with white and gold lion masks, each containing a green and gold faisceau; the cover is elaborately ajouré with four panels of scale pattern in apple green and gold, separated by the white and gold shrouds which ascend to the green and gold pinnacle of the mast; from it floats a white pennant fleurdelisé in gold and spiraling downwards; the whole rests upon an oval base with four tongue-shaped feet. The decoration consists of a glaze of rose Pompadour embellished with borders and ribbon scrolls in apple green outlined in gold, and enclosing two cartouches painted, probably by Dodin, one with a Teniers scene of a peasant family with a drunken father seated on the ground in his garden, the reverse with a bouquet of flowers. Date mark illegible. Has wrought bronze doré plinth.

Height 14½ inches

Note: One of the most celebrated of all the models of the Vincennes and early Sèvres periods, the design for which was executed by the goldsmith Duplessis. Few are known, existing examples being in the Wallace Collection, the Royal collections at Windsor and Buckingham Palace and in the Alphonse de Rothschild collections; it is said that there are none in the public collections in Paris.
